10. The objectives of the Program/activity/event	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ensure that undergraduate and postgraduate students gain a deeper understanding of the complexities surrounding globalization and its impact on public administration, public policy and governance enabling them to engage critically with related theories and practices. • The distinguished lectures are aimed at reflecting diverse perspectives and experiences of speakers, fostering a rich dialogue that reflects various viewpoints on citizen-centric administration, leadership, governance, and public policy making. • Provide students with practical insights and real-world examples to illustrate theoretical concepts, equipping them with tangible knowledge that can be applied to professional contexts or further academic pursuits.
11. Description of the Program/activity/event	Ms. Tricia Vaz e Borges, Coordinator of the programme and HOD of the Department of Political Science at St. Xavier's College, introduced Professor Jeevan Kumar, setting the stage for an enlightening lecture. Professor Kumar's lecture delved into the challenges confronting modern governance systems, notably the metamorphosis of the welfare state into a dysfunctional entity marred by bureaucratic impediments and corruption. The lecture was followed by an engaging interactive session, wherein Professor Kumar responded to queries from students, thereby enriching the discourse on citizen-centric administration. Dr. Sharmila Pais e Martins, Co-coordinator and HOD of the Department of History at St. Xavier's College, extended the vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to all involved in organising the lecture.
12. Benefit/Key outcomes of the Program/activity/event	Professor Jeevan Kumar delivered an insightful discourse, emphasizing the need for responsive governance structures and the role of citizens in combating administrative corruption. He highlighted the challenges

	facing modern governance systems. Professor Kumar advocated for 'Heterarchy' and stressed the importance of digitalization and e-governance in fostering citizen-friendly administration. The event underscored collaborative efforts toward nurturing informed citizenship and excellence in public governance. The students will understand the need for responsive governance. The citizens will become aware of their role in combating administrative corruption. The citizens will understand the challenges facing modern governance systems.
