Discipline of French and Francophone Studies

Report on Newsletter Les Actus

The students of the MA French Program, Ms. Mrinalinii Mehra (MA Part 2) and Ms. Abhigya Sharma (MA Part 1) created an online newsletter titled Les Actus for the Discipline of French and Francophone Studies. The first edition of Les Actus was published on 14th July 2023.

The word "Actus" is actually the short form of the French word "Actualité", which translates to "News". The objective of the newsletter is to keep the French-speaking community in Goa in particular, India in general informed about departmental news and updates. In addition it is also meant to create and encourage a lively space where students of the discipline of French and Francophone Studies at Goa University could express their creativity and ideas to everyone. All Goa University students of the discipline of French and Francophone Studies are invited to share their inputs and contribute to the newsletter for future editions.
