10. The objectives of the Program/activity/event	Fête de la Musique, also known in English as World Music Day, is an annual music celebration that takes place on 21 June. On this day of the summer solstice, residents are urged to play music outside in their neighborhoods or in public spaces and parks. Free concerts are also organized, where musicians play for fun and not for payment. The first celebration was in Paris in 1982 and now it's celebrated in 120 countries around the world. The Shenoi Goembab School of Languages and Literature in collaboration with Alliance Française, Panjim organized the event to celebrate music, to provide a platform to expose hidden talents and to bring a sense of inclusivity through music.

11. Description of the Program/activity/event	Participants were provided an open stage wherein they could perform an instrumental piece or a song, individually or in a group. The event began with a welcome address by the Dean, Prof. Anuradha Wagle. This was followed by performances by students, faculty and members of the public, in different styles, genres and languages. Asst. Prof. Ms. Runa Menezes compered the event. The event was coordinated by Asst. Prof. Franz Schubert Cotta.
12. Benefit/Key outcomes of the Program/activity/event	Students, faculty and members of the public used the platform to exhibit their musical talents and uniting themselves through music. The event created an atmosphere of inclusivity with songs being sung in different languages, including Hindi, Konkani, Marathi, French, Portuguese, English & Korean.
