10. The objectives of the Program/activity/event	To introduce learners to the literary lens of Posthumanism and familiarize them with the ongoing literary inquiries in the field. The programme aimed to facilitate students in exploring this area for their own independent research in the form of M.A. dissertations.
11. Description of the Program/activity/event	The two-day event constituted two specialized lectures on the topics: i) Theorising Posthumanism ii) Understanding Dystopian Literature The lectures investigate the question of what constitutes the idea of 'human' and 'non-human' through the theoretical lens of posthumanism and dystopian literature. This issues of rationality, agency, hierarchy, and technology were addressed while imagining the near future and what all it may entail. Through the select texts (written and visual) the lectures pondered upon the question of being and its very crises. The primary aim of the lectures was to question the position of humans concerning the understanding of the planet. The lectures were followed by a Q&A session where the speaker clarified the queries of the students and briefed them about the scope of further research in the areas.
12. Benefit/Key outcomes of the Program/activity/event	The learners were introduced to the literary lens of Posthumanism, familiarized with the ongoing literary inquiries in the field and learnt about the possible research questions in this field for their own independent research in the form of M.A. dissertations
