The objective/ description of the activity	The orientation was organized for the students of TYBA French and Portuguese. The objective of the project orientation was to introduce to the TYBA students the concept of research and to initiate the process of the project. They were informed of the format and chapterization of the project report. The students were explained the concept of plagiarism, how to avoid plagiarism, referencing, citations and the format of the bibliography. They were also sensitized on the types of reliable sources of information that they can use and how to find the various sources. The project evaluation criteria were explained along with other procedural guidelines. The students were given a tentative timeline beginning with the submission of registration forms to the submission of the project reports.
Benefit/ key outcome of the activity	The students gained clarity with the topics they had chosen and the approach required of them. They were equipped with the knowledge regarding plagiarism and MLA style referencing and bibliography required for a language project. With the information regarding the grading and evaluation, the students were well informed of the different aspects of a project.
