The objective/ description of the activity	The event was held to commemorate the International Day of Francophonie. The day was celebrated with a quiz conducted by Ms Kshama Dharwadkar on the monuments, culture, history and fun facts related to various francophone countries, followed by a tasting session of different francophone cuisines. In the afternoon, a movie "La vie est belle" of Benoit Lamy and Mweze Ngangura was screened for the students. The objective of the event was to enable students to have a synesthetic experience of francophone culture.
Benefit/ key outcome of the activity	The students benefitted from the quiz where they discovered the history and the culture of various francophone countries. The francophone culinary experience exposed them to various typical ingredients like couscous used in African cuisine and tastes of francophone cuisine. The discussions and interactions during the meal centered around the food habits and dishes in francophone countries. The screening of the
