10. The objectives of the Program/activity/event	The competition aimed to raise awareness about the dangers of ragging and promote a safe, supportive campus environment. Ragging is a crime in India's higher education system that involves any disorderly conduct that can cause annoyance, hardship, or psychological harm to another student. This can include: Teasing, treating, or handling a student with rudeness, Rowdy or undisciplined activities, forcing a student to do something that violates their dignity, exposing a student to ridicule, intimidating a student to prevent them from doing something lawful, threatening a student's physical or mental health, Physical assault or threats, Violating the dignity of women students or students from Scheduled Castes etc.
11. Description of the Program/activity/event	The competition was organized by Sheno Goembab School of Languages and Literature on 16th August 2024 at 1 PM in BF-58 Classroom, Discipline of Hindi, Faculty Block B. A total of 13 entries were received from students all over the different schools of the University. Overall, the response was very good. Many posters were received with very good slogans and good creativity. The judges for the competition were: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1) Dr. Sanika Samant, Assistant Professor of Biotechnology, School of Biological Sciences and Biotechnology, Goa University.</li> <li>2) Smt. 12. Benefit/Key outcomes of the Program/activity/event	The 'Anti-Ragging Week' celebration at Goa

	University was highly successful in raising awareness among students and faculty about the importance of creating and maintaining a positive and inclusive campus environment. Anti-ragging awareness is important because it helps create a safe and supportive environment for students, free from harassment, bullying, or abuse. Ragging can have a negative impact on students' mental health, self-esteem, and overall well-being, and can even lead to suicide. Anti-ragging efforts can help prevent and address these issues, and promote a culture of respect and accountability among students.
