11. Description of the program/activity/event	Media is essential to get updated about our large consumer-driven society in a modern way. Media constantly updates a person about every technical, political, educational, art, business, and every field of our social life. Media is also essential to spread advertisements about a product or other public elements. Hence the Discipline of Hindi decided to take the students of Media and Journalism of MA II to the studio and offices of different media.
12. Benefit/Key outcomes of the Program/activity/event	Students were very happy to see how the different media works. They were able to know how the news and other programs are recorded on Radio. They even recorded a demo talk. At Gomantak TV studio, they were able to learn how the news bulletins are made. Some even tried reading the news using teleprompter and camera. This made them confident to face the camera, also their interest got developed in TV news and programs. At Lokmat newspaper office, they learned how a newspaper is made right from reporting level to printing. Also, the editor of Lokmat requested students to write for the paper and they will publish the articles.
