11. Description of the Program/activity/event	The inaugural ceremony of the year-long celebration marking 75 years of the Indian Constitution was a momentous occasion, held at a grand venue with the presence of key dignitaries, including the Hon'ble Justice Siddharth Mridul, Chief Justice (Retd.) High Court of Manipur, Dr. Pramod Sawant, Hon'ble Chief Minister of Goa and others. A symbolic lighting of the ceremonial lamp marked the beginning of the celebrations, and events planned throughout the year to honour this milestone. The event showcased India's rich constitutional history, highlighting its significance in shaping democracy. The Speeches given by the dignitaries emphasized the values of justice, equality, and liberty. The celebration concluded with a question answer session with the students, the vote of thanks and singing of the national anthem.
12. Benefit/Key outcomes of the Program/activity/event	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The ceremony served as a reminder of India's democratic values and the Constitution's pivotal role in shaping the country's development.

2.The event raised awareness about the Indian Constitution, its provisions, and the rights it guarantees to every citizen.
3.The ceremony provided an opportunity to reflect on the progress made in governance, public welfare, and social justice.
4.The ceremony facilitated discussions and reflection on key constitutional values such as justice, equality, freedom, and fraternity.
5.A year-long celebration gives the students a platform to showcase its Constitutional achievements on the global stage.
6.The event provided an opportunity for the students and faculty members to interact with prominent legal scholars, judges, and political figures.
7.A key outcome of the celebration was the reaffirmation of the importance of the rule of law in India. By engaging citizens and officials in activities related to the Constitution, the ceremony helped to strengthen the country's legal system and governance structures.

Chief Minister Pramod Sawant has advocated for the implementation of a Uniform Civil Code (UCC) and the One Nation One Election concept across India to prevent crises similar to those experienced by Pakistan and Bangladesh.

Sawant highlighted Goa's pioneering role in implementing the UCC and urged its adoption nationwide. "The Uniform Civil Code and One Nation One Election will prevent India from crises like those in Pakistan and Bangladesh. These nations, separated from India, suffer due to their governance. India, as the mother of democracy, must adhere to the rights and duties enshrined in its Constitution to ensure its stability and progress," he said, during the inauguration of the year-long celebration of 75 years of the Indian Constitution at the Goa University.

The event, held at the university campus in Taleigao, was attended by former Chief Justice of the Manipur High Court Siddharth Mridul, Law and Judiciary Minister Aleixo Sequeira, Leader of Opposition Yuri Alemao, Advocate General Devidas Pangam, Chief Secretary Dr. V. Candavelou, Vice Chancellor of Goa University Prof. Harilal Menon, and others.

Sawant said it was important to fulfil one's constitutional duties, adding, "Everyone fights for their rights, but we must also focus on our duties to achieve real justice for the people of India."

Chief Minister Pramod Sawant, along with Speaker Ramesh Tawadkar and Goa BJP chief Sadanand Shet Tanavade, congratulated senior leader from Maharashtra, Devendra Fadnavis, on the BJP-Mahayuti's victory in the Assembly elections.

"I extend my heartfelt congratulations to Devendra Fadnavis on the resounding and commendable victory in the Maharashtra Assembly elections in the presence of Tanavade and Tawadkar," said Sawant.

He stated that the victory reflects the people's trust and confidence in the leadership and governance of the BJP and its allies in Maharashtra. "I also convey my best wishes to him for continued success in driving Maharashtra towards new heights of development and prosperity. May his leadership inspire progress and welfare of all," said Sawant.
