Report on Purple Campaign for Gender Equality

at

Government college of Arts, Science and Commerce, Sanquelim, Goa

As a part of our commitment to bring about gender equality through the extension activities, the Women's Studies Programme interacts with students of various colleges through a series of workshops under the activity Purple Campaign. Through this activity we also aim at reaching out to prospective students of the M.A. Women's Studies Programme at Goa University.

Purple Campaign for equality was organized in collaboration with Gender Champion Club of Government College of Arts, Science and Commerce, Sanquelim, Goa, on 22 February 2025 from 11.30 a.m. to 1.30 p.m.

Vice-Principal, Ms. Rosalina D'silva, welcomed the gathering and Women's Studies team of Goa University for organizing this program in their college. Also thanked Gender champion club Convenor Ms. Minoshka D'souza and members Ms. Sampada Kerkar, Ms. Anushka Panjekar and Ms. Dorathy Alphonso for taking initiative for organizing program on Gender Sensitization. Vice-Principal Presented potted plant to Dr. Sulochana Pednekar and requested to start the program. Dr. Sulochana Pednekar, welcomed the participants for the program and thanked the Principal and team for providing an opportunity to conduct the activity. Dr. Sulochana briefly informed the participants about the Women's Studies and the MA Women's Studies Course offered at Goa University and moved to conduct the activities.

First activity, we screened a short Ted talk video on 'Patriarchy Dehumanises Men' by Kamala Basin. Groups were formed and each group was asked to discuss the issues in groups and one member presented the issues discussed in the video and provided the strategies to address the gender issues raised in the video. Dr. Sulochana provided feedback to students on their presentations. Followed by the discussion Dr. Sulochana conducted a group activity titled ‘ Power Walk’ by inviting students and assigning them roles and identities . This activity demonstrated the existing inequalities in the society and need for actions to reduce the same. Also the deliberation was made to address the inequities in the society. Lastly, Ms. Priti Parab, Research Scholar at Women’s Studies Programme along with Ms. Preeti Verma (MA Part-II) and Mr. Aniket Bagayat student of M.A. (Part-I)Women’s Studies Programme, Conducted the Quiz competition within the groups.

Overall, group prize was given to the winners of quiz competition for runners up and winners. The students were given spot prizes for active participation in the activities, games, and discussion on gender issues. This enhanced participation of all the students. At the end prizes and certificates were presented to the students.

In total 54 students participated of which 11 were males and 43 were females. Ms. Minoshka D’souza gave vote of thanks by thanking the team for conducting the activity and for providing students with enriching experience.
